Compensation Committee Charter
(Adopted by the Board on March 3, 2021)

The Compensation Committee of the Board of Directors shall consist of at least three Directors, each of whom shall be independent as defined in accordance with all applicable securities laws and regulations and all applicable stock exchange rules; provided, however, that one or more members of the Committee may be non-independent if permitted by all applicable regulations and stock exchange rules. The Committee meets at least annually, or more frequently as required.

The purpose of the Compensation Committee is to assist the Board in discharging its duties relating to compensation of the executive officers of the Company, with goals, among others, of enabling the Company to attract, retain and motivate the most qualified talent who will contribute to the long term success of the Company by aligning compensation with the Company's business objectives and performance, and aligning incentives with the interests of shareholders to maximize shareholders' value.

The Committee's duties and responsibilities are:

- To recommend to the Board for determination, the compensation of the Chief Executive Officer of the Company, who, notwithstanding any provisions contained herein to the contrary, shall not be permitted to attend the Committee's deliberations and voting relating to his or her compensation.
- To recommend to the Board for determination, the compensation of senior management and executive officers of the Company other than the Chief Executive Officer.
- To review the compensation and benefits of the directors in their capacity as directors of the Company to ensure that such compensation reflects the responsibilities and risks involved in being a director.
- To review and make recommendations to the Board as to the general compensation and benefits policies and practices of the Company, including incentive stock options for all employees, consultants, directors and officers.
- To review the disclosure to be made of director and executive remuneration in the Management Information Circular.
- To ensure there are appropriate training, development and benefit programs in place for management and staff.
- To review and make recommendations to the Board for its approval on any special compensation and benefit arrangements.
- To review its compensation practices by comparing them to surveys of relevant competitors and to set objective compensation based on this review.

- To perform such other functions as the Board may from time to time assign to the Committee.
- To review its charter and assess annually the adequacy of this mandate, the effectiveness of its performance, and to recommend changes to the Board for its approval.
- To engage any outside advisor or expert, including compensation consultants, independent legal counsel, and other compensation advisors as it deems necessary to permit it to carry out its duties. The Committee shall be solely and directly responsible for the appointment, compensation, and oversight of the work of any such advisor. Prior to engaging or obtaining advice from any advisor, the Committee shall assess the independence of the advisor, taking into consideration all relevant factors as required by all applicable regulations, including:
 - The provision of other services to the Company by the person that employs the compensation consultant, legal counsel or other adviser;
 - The amount of fees received from the Company by the person that employs the compensation consultant, legal counsel or other adviser, as a percentage of the total revenue of the person that employs the compensation consultant, legal counsel or other adviser;
 - The policies and procedures of the person that employs the compensation consultant, legal counsel or other adviser that are designed to prevent conflicts of interest;
 - Any business or personal relationship of the compensation consultant, legal counsel or other adviser with a member of the Committee;
 - Any stock of the Company owned by the compensation consultant, legal counsel or other adviser; and
 - Any business or personal relationship of the compensation consultant, legal counsel, other adviser or the person employing the adviser with an executive officer of the Company.

The Company shall provide for appropriate funding, as determined by the Committee, for payment of reasonable compensation of compensation consultants, independent legal counsel or any other advisor retained by the Committee.
